Jeanne Sandberg, Editor
Volume 14

McCallum High School
Austin, Texas

The wide world of McCallum is a world created of yesterdays, existing of todays, and promising of tomorrows. From the past, we improve ourselves and our lives . . . in the present, we learn . . . in the future, we will prosper by our experiences and from our memories. With the hope of reawakening these memories and experiences, the Knight staff presents this book. May its pages bring endless enjoyment, and may it be treasured always.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Sandberg

Jeanne Sandberg, Editor

Perhaps the purpose of this page should be called an acknowledgement rather than a dedication, but we, the Knight staff, wish to dedicate this book to the students and faculty members of McCallum. Without them, the Knight would not be able to fulfill its purpose; indeed, it would have no purpose. Therefore, we dedicate this volume of our yearbook to the students and faculty members who fill its pages.

The wide world of McCallum . . .

The wide world of McCallum is a diversified world. It is made up of different individuals, it offers a wide variety of courses; it encourages the development of ability in special fields. And our world here at McCallum is a changing world. We have witnessed the air conditioning of our school and have used, for the first time, our second gym. As in the past, we lose and gain students and faculty members. These changes are very evident ones. However, as always, the world of McCallum moves on — ever learning, teaching, working, enjoying, growing, leading.

. . . is a world of varied interests,

a few special moments, and many wonderful memories.

*It is a world
of joy in victory . . .*

*This year McCallum won many victories and received many honors in athletics, journalism, music, speech . . . We also brought home the Victory Bell.
McCallum was indeed fortunate.*

. . . and of sorrow in defeats.

But, of course, even the longest winning streaks must end. And McCallum, being the great school that it is, embarks on new quests for glory.

The world of McCallum is a world of learning.

Learning is the foundation and sustenance of McCallum. If there were no need for knowledge, there would be no need for McCallum. Fortunately, McCallum possesses a capable and dedicated faculty to challenge the minds of the students with facts from the sea of knowledge, as vast as the waters of the world. And in answer, McCallum's students meet this challenge and often surpass it.

*The most important part
is the people.*

The truly important part of McCallum is the people who attend it and the people who work here. The students, faculty, and administration make McCallum the great school that it is by their scholarship, leadership, citizenship, competitive spirit, and the variety of their interests.

All the classes heard speakers from three denominations during Brotherhood Week. Seniors showed their talents in the annual Senior Talent Show.

The Chandelles, the band heard most often, performed in the football pay assemblies.

Parents Go Back To School

Lives of Many Students

Air Conditioning Adds Noise and Clutter to Our Halls

In October, the air conditioning and relighting of McCallum began. Few realized how noise, dirt, and clutter would fill the halls. The relighting was completed during the Christmas holidays, but the entire building was not air conditioned until the middle of May, providing much relief for students and faculty. (Some rooms were so cool, many people had to wear sweaters.)

The second annual Western Day was held at McCallum March 8. The school was filled with comancheros, parsons, judges, dudes, cowboys, grannies, Annie Oakleys, and hillbillies. The Student Council's Social Committee promoted the activities of the day by decorating the halls with wanted posters, renaming the school Dry Gulch, and honoring Mr. Frank Rundell and Miss Margaret Dawson as Mr. and Miss Dry Gulch, respectively. Western Day won't be soon forgotten by many students and teachers.

The Spirit of McCallum

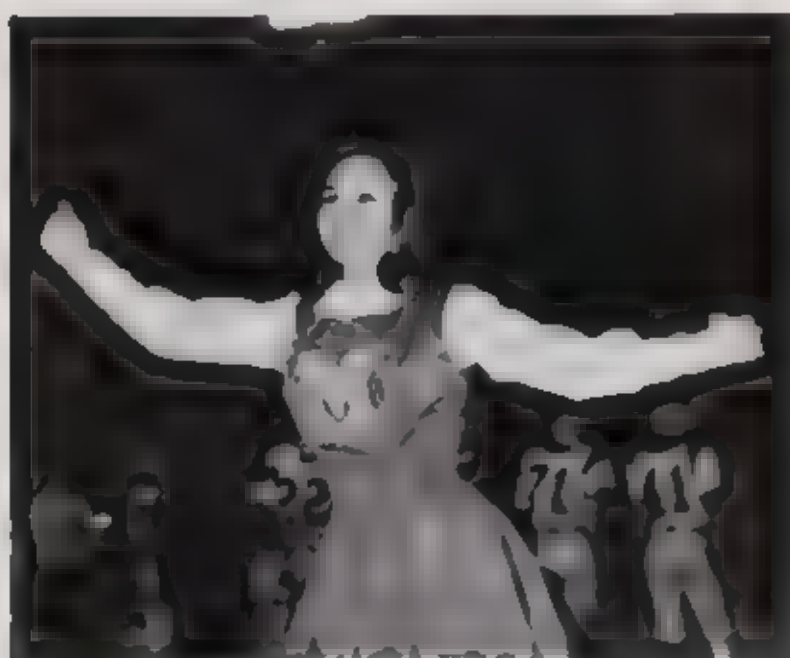

The seven McCallum cheerleaders have many responsibilities throughout the year. They attend a cheerleader clinic in the summer, and make long signs, go signs, and run-throughs for the pep rallies. The cheerleaders decorate the football goals and are in charge of Knight Notes. They also make announcements about athletic events. Other responsibilities include selling decals and conducting cheerleader school for candidates. Their biggest job, of course, is leading cheers at almost every athletic event.

Mac Earns South Zone Berth by Dumping Austin High, 7-0

Robert Morgan makes the catch that counts.

McCALLUM—7 AUSTIN—0

The Knights rallied at the close of the first half and moved fifty-eight yards for the winning touchdown, wrapping up a position in the South Zone playoff game. Chrisman hit end, Johnson, for nine yards to the Austin forty-nine yard line. John Dodgen picked up the first down on the following play at the forty-seven. Three plays later, Austin found Zapalac making the big first down on the slant at the thirty-five.

Chrisman then ran eight yards to the twenty-seven yard line. Catching Austin off guard with fifty-seven seconds left, he tossed "the bomb" right into the waiting arms of Robert Morgan on the two yard line. Morgan climaxed the drive by racing into the left side of the end zone for the only score of the game.

To top off a hard fought battle with victory, Chrisman made a "7" out of a "6" with a good conversion kick (Ramm holding).

Knights "Vaporize Victoria" 28-7

Tailback David Mueller rams a punt back down Victoria's throat.

The Blue and Gray legions sported a valiant 112 yard offense. Second-string tailback, David Mueller, gained the first touchdown from the two yard line. Fullback John Dodgen ripped off 145 yards in 13 carries and punched one over on a 21 yard run. In the air, Rick Nabors hit basketball ace David Johnson with a 12-yarder for a second quarter touchdown, and Steve Chrisman followed in the fourth quarter with a 24 yard pass to end Tom Radley for the final McCallum tally of the evening.

Squires Show Spirit

The enthusiasm and sportsmanship displayed by the 1966 Squires was a credit to McCallum football tradition. Though short on size and speed, the boys proved themselves long on courage and desire by constantly improving their games. Their coach, Mr. Jim Acker, whose outstanding leadership guided the Squires, was very proud of the team's efforts. Though not evident in the statistics, the Squires had a very successful season as measured by sportsmanship and effort.

Bi-District Champions 13 AAAA and 14 AAAA

The 1967 McCallum Basketball Team won more games than any team in McCallum's history—24 victories. They won District for the third straight year and for the fifth time out of the last six District titles. Coach Rundell celebrated his 200th win since becoming head coach at McCallum. It took the eventual State Champion to eliminate the Knights from the State race.

The 1967 Basketball Team truly has many things to be proud of. They are the Tournament winner in the North Austin Tourney and the 2nd place winner in the Caprock Tourney in Lubbock.

Knights Blister Maroons

David Johnson (right) looks on helplessly as the ball goes loose.

The McCallum Knights shot at a blistering 59.5 pace to defeat the Austin Maroons, 62-37, and clinch a tie for the South Zone championship.

Leading only 11-6 at the end of the first quarter, the Knights began to hit and wound up with a 29-13 halftime lead. When Jimmy Clark tossed in a pair of free throws in the fourth quarter the Knights had their biggest lead at 52-24.

B-Team Ties For City Championship

Mel O'Banion, Basketball B-Team Captain for 1966-67, confers with Coach Jim Acker (Right).

For the second year in a row the B-Team has had a 16-4 season. This year they hold the best B-Team record in the city. The major highlight of the season is that they won the Co-Championship for the City. The minor highlight was beating Austin High School-32-9 at the half and 44-26 for the final score. The outstanding players for the season were Gay Ramm, Mel O'Banion, Steve Jester, Pat McCarty, Jeff Clark, and John Bleker. Coach Jim Acker should be recognized for his ability and patience while working with the boys to maintain this fine season record.

Co-Champs: Austin Independent

Blue Brigade

The McCallum Blue Brigade, a girls' service organization, served its school well. Some of its activities for the year were marching at half-time shows, decorating athletes' yards before important games, sponsoring the Blue Brigade Semi-formal Dance on December 17, holding a banquet on January 19 and a spring picnic May 2, and ushering at the Baccalaureate Services.

Senior Carol Emmert received this year's fall service award.

The spirit of the Blue Brigade always prevails.

Mac's Girls In Sports

Every intramural sport offers the challenge of personal achievement.

Linda Paulson, Joy Wilke, Barbara Thompson, Jean Byers, and Betty Beckham on the back row and Ann Stevenson, Mary Johnson, Malinda Crow, and Evajo Kelley on the front row made up McCallum's second team in the city tournament.

The members of both championship teams pictured certainly represented McCallum well in the city volleyball tournament.

In addition, Mac girls like Martha Ashley competed in school and city tournaments for badminton, archery, track, and other sports.

Nancy Lee waits tensely for her opponent to serve.

Literature In A Hurry . . .

Editor Ginger Banks discusses the plans for next issue with Suzanne DeGroot and Gary Huddleston.

The Shield, a bi-weekly paper, published 15 issues this year. Students in journalism class and a volunteer staff constitute the staff.

Putting out an edition involves time, effort and know-how. Reporters turn in assigned stories a week ahead of publication date. Copyreading and headline writing are the next steps. After the copy returns from the printer for proofreading, dummies are laid out for page makeup. Following page proofing, the class begins on the next issue before the present one comes out. The cycle repeats itself.

Girls' Government — Tri-Hi-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y, officially named Tri-Kappa, is a girls' youth government and service organization. It is opened to sophomores, juniors and seniors and offers the chance to meet new friends (girls as well as boys from Hi-Y) all over the state. This year's events started with Pre-legislature (Pre-leg) in October, giving everyone who was uninformed ideas of what our government is really like. Next, there was Model Legislature at the Capitol Building in December. Delegates were Linda Bundy, Debby Haltom, Rosemary Hibler, Brenda Keller, Linda Leigh, Laurie Shanblum, and Janie Townsend. Representatives from all over the state were here for a long, hard, but fun weekend. Spring Conference in Corpus Christi during April, topped off the year very successfully for the Tri-Kappa members of 1966-67.
